Cheerleaders compete at Kennywood ... 26 years in a row!

West Mifflin, PA- Monday August 8, 2005 is the 26th annual Cheerleader Day at Kennywood! Guests are welcome to enjoy this exciting tradition... cheering, chanting, dancing, music, pom poms, and lots of energy. The competitions take place on the Lagoon Stage (a.k.a. SkyCoaster Island), located in the center of the park.

The day long event begins at 11:00 AM, with approximately 50 cheering squads (totaling approximately 150 girls!) competing. National Federation rules apply. Categories include Junior High, Junior Varsity, and Senior Varsity.

Trophies are awarded immediately following the Varsity competition, at approximately 5:00 PM. It only happens one day each season – SkyCoaster stops flying and Cheerleaders take over the lagoon stage. SkyCoaster will resume operation immediately following awards ceremony.
